Is more efficacious in its operafrom as regards the moral and domestic comfort of the people, and in its tendency to reduce taxa-tion, by its refuction of pauperism, and possibly of crime, than the legislation of our wisest states men; and, if universally adopted, would be a na-tional blessing. 4. It affords to persons of every class, and in every station of life, the means to avoid much future misery to their families, and to render them independent of Fpublic or private eharity.

While it is the manifest and imperative duty of every parent, curing his life-lime, to embrace all honorable means of supporting and advancing the interest of his offspring, so it is equally his duty to avoid leaving them at his death to grope their way in helpless poverty through an uncharitable world; and equally apparent is the duty of every husband to provide, in case of his death, for the surviving widow. To effect all which Life Insurance Companies have been formed, which enable every husband and parent, by the payment of a small sum, either annually or quarterly, to pro-vide for his widow and fatherless children.
